Earn rewards

businessflyer customers who are members of a oneworld airline's frequent flyer programme can earn miles and points throughout the oneworld network, as well as benefiting from all the privileges that come with membership status.

Instant Savings and Flexibility businessflyer fares are available in Business and Economy class (and in certain cases First as well), and can accommodate last minute changes. What's more, you don't need to worry about complicated fare rules and change-fees.
